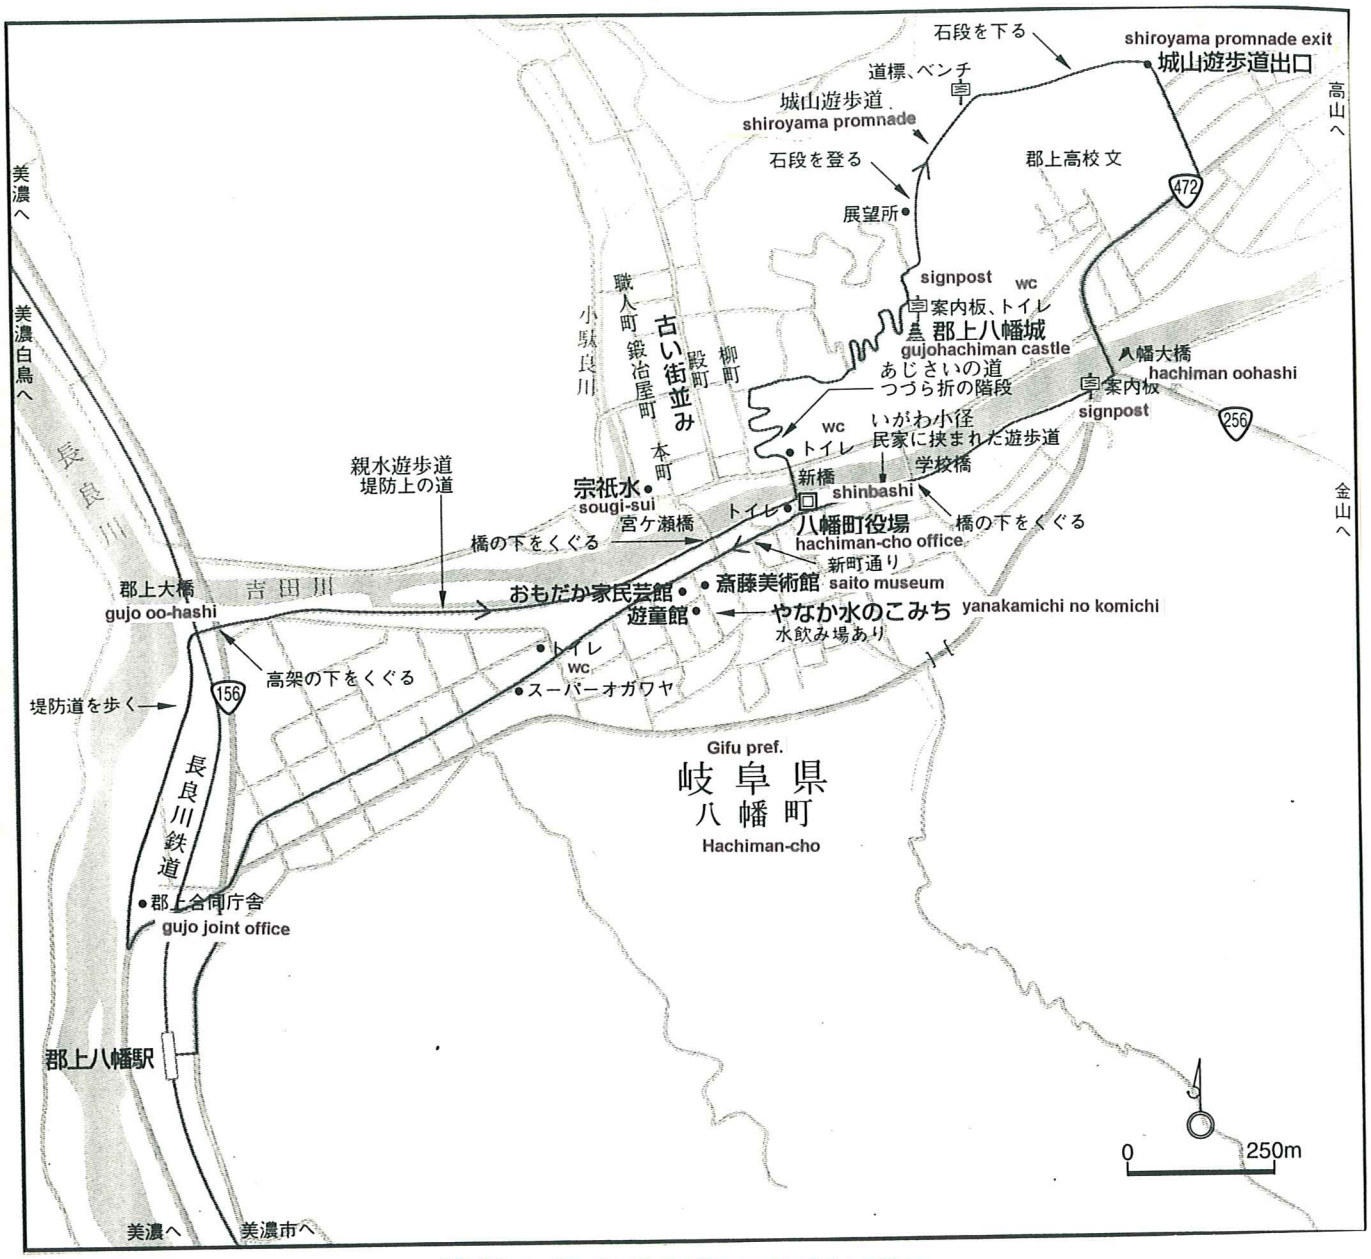
⑦ GUJO-HACHIMAN

郡上八幡



Visiting the Ancient Town in Oku-Mino

Gujo-Hachiman, famous for the fresh water in the Gujo-Odora well, was prosperous as a castle town and as one of the main towns in Oku-Mino, as well as being well known as a riverside town with the Nagara River and the Yoshida River which branches off from the Nagara. You can enjoy an easy walk around the town.

This time, you can take a course to enjoy nature and some historical ruins by way of the Shinsui Promenade along the Yoshida River and the promenades around Hachiman Castle, from the donjon (castle tower) of which you can get a full view of the surrounding scenery.

When descending the mountain, you can take the Shiroyama Promenade to enjoy some mountain walking.
