

Be careful of infection of Novel coronavirus

Message from Aichi Police (April 7, 2020)

If it is almost time to renew your driver's license

- Inform us at a drivers license test center or police station before your license expires if you would like to extend your renewal date by 3 months.

※ You must retake a lesson (講習の受講), and aptitude test (適性検査) while renewing your driver's license (更新手続き) during this time period.

Eligibility

- Driver's license renewal date falls between March 13th, 2020 and July 31st, 2020.
- ※ You are still eligible to re-extend your renewal date if your new renewal date falls between March 13th, 2020 and July 31st, 2020.

If your license is expired

- If your driver's license is expired, you may 1) be exempt from the knowledge check (学科試験) and practical skills confirmation test (技能試験) and 2) have your license reissued to you. However, you must apply within 3 years following your driver's license expiration date, and within a month following the end of the pandemic.
 - Speak with a representative in order to receive a discount on the processing fee.
- Contact your nearest police station for more details.

Message from the Nagoya Immigration Bureau

(April 7, 2020)

- In order to lower traffic at the immigration counter residency applications, residence cards, excluding "designated activities" (特定活動 (per your stay period)), that expire between March and June will receive a 3-month extension for Change of Status of Residence (在留資格変更許可申請) and Extension of Period of Stay (在留期間更新許可申請) applications.
- In order to prevent the spread of COVID-19, please do not visit unless it is an emergency.